

K-Love serves our local community by providing family friendly music, which is very needed today. The effect on the local community would be devastating, seeing as this is one avenue for people to learn about God. These people for the most part have been turned off by main stream religion. Through K-Love people are given the help they need, be it prayer, counseling, etc. to survive in this crazy rat race world.